

Bond Issue Is Voted Off Forthcoming BG Ballot

BELLE GLADE — The on-again off-again water improvement/sewage disposal system which would cost Belle Glade citizens an estimated $2.6 million, is off again and will not be an issue in the upcoming Sept. 11 election.

The bond issue referendum matter came up at a late hour at Wednesday night's regular City Commission meeting, and only three spectators were in the audience to see commissioners' tempers flare at the reversal to hold up on the election.

Commissioner Ellis reported he'd had word from the Citizens Committee that Belle Glade citizens were still confused on details of the multi-million dollar bond issue and wanted more time to study the proposal before casting votes.

Whereupon he moved to postpone the bond issue election until a later date. Commissioner Zack Ingram and Mayor Walter Ashley supported his motion as a commissioner from central and having opposition from Floyd Rider.

H. B. "Shirley" Draa and W. J. Evans are the candidates vying for the northern commission slot now filled by Eugene Ellis, who declined to run again.

At Belle Glade, registration will be: Aug. 29-9-12 noon, 12th grade; 1-3-30 p.m., 11th grade; Aug. 30-9-12 noon, 1st graders and 10th grade; 1-3-30 p.m., 9th grade; Aug. 31-9-12 noon, 7th and 8th grade; Sept. 1-8-30 a.m., 2nd and 6th grades.

Only two weeks ago, Unwin and Livingston had instigated the vote to put the issue on the Sept. 11 ballot, with only Commissioner Ellis voting "no," on the grounds more time for citizens' study was needed.

The proposed Sept. 11 election on the issue was to have been a "straw vote" only, to guide commissioners. With the election postponed indefinitely, the city is "out" $300 for the second time because of brochures printed on the matter, which cannot be used later.

City Attorney Claude Jones reminded the Commission it is bound by a fiscal year election "within a reasonable period of time."

Concerning the Citizens Committee, Unwin moved that it be cited for failure to co-operate with the Commission in pushing the bond issue and acquiescing Belle Glade citizens with facts.

(The Citizens Committee was appointed by Mayor Ashley in the spring, and consisted of W. Lanier, chairman, James Ball, Luc Puckett, Ivan Van Horn and Francis Harris. Lanier presided as master of ceremonies, and Ball was in question-and-answer session.)

At the Monday meeting, Ball said he had no improvements but added "I'm not sure I approve the financial arrangement." He was persuasive from a health standpoint and growth viewpoint that we look for improvement when the septic tanks overflowed. "I hope this meeting hasn't come too late for the Sept. 11 election."

Mrs. Ruth Wedgworth told the Monday audience that when she served on the school board, the biggest school problem was when the septic tanks overflowed. She also sought Commission reassurances as to water and sewage disposal rates.

JEAN BROWN TWIRLS FOR ITHACA ALL-STAR GAME

ITHACA, N.Y. — Miss Jean Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown, Pahokee, Fla., put on a fine twirling exhibition at the request of the City of Ithaca at its recent all-star baseball game.

Miss Brown, Pahokee's FFA's 1956 Sweetheart, was also interviewed on a local radio station and functioned as the "Pahokee Chapter of Commerce, Jean and her sister, Jo Ellen attended the Ithaca Youth Bureau music and sports day camp for six weeks this summer.

Mrs. Brown and daughters will return to Pahokee Monday, stopping off en route at their summer camp on Lake Kerr. Mr. Brown will remain on business in Kings Ferry, N.Y., for a few more weeks.

4 In Belle Glade Election Race

BELLE GLADE — With the water/sewage disposal bond issue no longer a bone of contention in the upcoming Sept. 11 city election, the local political field involves four candidates who will run for two city commission posts.

Deadline for filing was Wednesday, with Mayor Walter Ashley running for re-election as a commissioner from central and having opposition from Floyd Rider.

H. B. "Shirley" Draa and W. J. Evans are the candidates vying for the northern commission slot now filled by Eugene Ellis, who declined to run again.

At Belle Glade, registration will be: Aug. 29-9-12 noon, 12th grade; 1-3-30 p.m., 11th grade; Aug. 30-9-12 noon, 1st graders and 10th grade; 1-3-30 p.m., 9th grade; Aug. 31-9-12 noon, 7th and 8th grade; Sept. 1-8-30 a.m., 2nd and 6th grades.

Yann Fishing Party Held

PAHOKEE — The annual fishing party of W. H. Vann Co., Inc., was held Wednesday, with a deep-sea charter day aboard the "Comanche" out of Layton's Docks. Company President Alma W. Farrow, Vice President L. J. Fraser, Mrs. Fraser, F. Anderson, Mrs. L. M. Gordy, Jr., and Miss Lucille Williams caught eight barracuda, one bonito, three blue runners, one dolphin. OBSERVER'S Jane Rieker went along for the ride.

SALVAGE SCRAP BUYS BOY SCOUT BEACH — Rescuing scrap iron from shores of Lake Okeechobee are (l-r) Oliver Stapler, Robert Simonson, Duncan Padgett and Louis Mims. Five trucks loaded salvaged under leadership of members of the Pahokee Lions Club brought about $550 to purchase a 66-palmering for Pahokee's Boy Scout Troop 28. An anonymous Pahokee who helped government build the lake levee in the early 30's knew where abandoned equipment was left submerged. With lake at low ebb, salvage operation was possible. Boy Scouts made an initial 70-mile trip to north Florida in their new bus over the weekend. Next Friday they'll dedicate Boy Scout Beach on the Pahokee waterfront. PHOTO BY AVERILL

DICKIE HURT WINS $100 AND CUP IN PAHOKEE TALENT FINALE

PAHOKEE — Six-year old Dickie Hurt, a beguiling singer if there ever was one, won first prize in the grand finale of Malcolm Millar's Talent Scout Night contests Tuesday at the Prince Theatre with the applause of an over-flowing audience bantlingly acclaiming him unanimously.

The only son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Hurt, 127 Banyan Ave., Dickie has four older sisters who have been managed to "up-stage" with his musical artistry. In winning out over more than 30 young artists who competed in the weekly Gold-Dobson talent shows, Dickie won a coveted loving cup presented by Parrish Jewelry and pocketed $100 cash donated by sponsoring Pahokee merchants.

What'll he do with the money? He's had an eye on a new bicycle for himself and one for his 11-year old sister Alice Elaine, who has accompanied him on the piano and given him much of his inspiration and coaching.

Finishing second in the Tuesday finals was the "Jive Five" group composed of Charles Elson, Robbie Walker, Donna Lee, Upthegrove and Joan Darden, with Jill McIlwain filling in for Keith Padgett as a drummer. Their award was $50 cash and a two months pass to the theatre.

Third place went to Tammie Branch, who was awarded a four months pass to the Prince Theatre.

Also appearing on the finale bill were hula dancers Meryl Ann Friend and Pam Whitlock; Roger Hutton on the accordion; Bonnie and Dottie Lark, vocalists; Linda Hand, toe dancer; Kenneth "Smiley" Williamson, guitarist; and Mary Ellen and Bobby Jimmerson, guitarists and singers.

Pahokee's merchants and firms sponsoring the talent shows were: Pahokee Motors, Schmidt's Pahokee Drugs, Boy's Electrical Appliances, J. A. C. Spencer's Market, L. M. Collins Furniture, Shirley Brothers, Inc., and Parrish Jewelry.

Judges, who determined winners on the basis of their estimate of audience applause, were Mrs. Cecelia Carruthers, president of Belle Glade BPW, Mrs. Frank Anderson, president of Belle Glade Beta Sigma Phi, and F. Anderson, Belle Glade city clerk who subbed for Commissioner Jack Ingram.

Although the talent contest is completed, next Tuesday's Prince fair will feature a "courtesy call" billing of top Belle Glade talent which has competed in a similar contest at the Hugo Theatre. Pahokee's array of artists will reciprocate with a performance next Thursday night at the Hugo.

"There's no faster way to get to the public than through the eyes of the media," said H. N. Kirkman, Florida Highway Patrol director.

SCHOOL DAZE

The "Back-To-School-Daze" is not confined to the young set. It's caught up with Pahokee merchants, among others.

This week the Retail Merchants Division of Pahokee Chamber of Commerce announced a sales promotion campaign to spur buy-at-home traffic. For details, see pages 4 and 5.

Water Meter Fast, SB Wants Redress

SOUTH BAY — Request by the South Bay City Council to meet with the Belle Glade City Commission to discuss water service charges was granted by the latter group.

South Bay purchases its water from Belle Glade and wants to negotiate its rate and/or seek reimbursement from its neighboring city for excessive charges resulting from an allegedly "fast" meter.

Officials of the two cities are due to meet jointly as soon as a date can be set.

Men who lost their temper in the old west in front of a six-gun tower, have descendants who drive headlong into crowded traffic.

Blues, Whites Vie For Title

PAHOKEE — A sparkling triple play — a rarity in softball circles anywhere — helped slow up the pennant-bound Blues team headed by Joe Sims and Sonny Brown in Tuesday's softball competition.

The Julian Snyder Reds pulled off the triple-killing as they beat the Blues, 9-3. Latter had the bases loaded, one run in and no outs, when A. E. Early hit a hard line drive which was speared by Shortstop Wayne Burdeshaw, whose toss to second sacker Bill Weathers and relay to first baseman Ray Thompson completed the triple play.

Blues can clinch the title tonight by beating the surging Hueston Connell Whites at 9 o'clock. Blues have a 2-1 edge over the Whites in season play, but if Whites win tonight and beat the Greens in a re-scheduled game Tuesday, they'll win the title. League standings:

Pahokee Teeners Meet, Organize And Seek Site

PAHOKEE — A Teen Age Club in Pahokee was a step nearer reality this week following an enthusiastic organizational meeting held Wednesday night at City Hall and attended by 46 teenagers and half a dozen adults.

Backed by Co-Sponsors Douglas Gillis and Ronnie Hitchcock, the youths met with Mayor F. S. "Dick" Parrish, Police Chief Leon Guthrie, Juvenile Officer Earl Chance, Elmer "Babs" Upthegrove and Dow Fitzgerald.

Hitchcock emceed the meeting and appointed a steering committee to meet with adult representatives of civic clubs to help acquire a headquarters and recreation hall for teenagers.

Named on the committee were Nancy Thomas, chairman; Glenda Faye Russom, Valerie Geiger, Chet Clark, Wayne Elliott, Raymond Kiedzik and Gerry Upthegrove, with Hitchcock and Gillis to serve in ex-officio capacities.

While a building site for the Teen Age Club is being looked for, Wayne Elliott reported the possibility of acquiring a surplus government boat which could be permanently docked at Pahokee Harbor for use as a headquarters.

Hitchcock reminded the teenagers that the club is not until the Club is formally organized and active support is forthcoming from civic clubs. He urged continued good department.

Mayor Parrish termed the meeting as "very good and most encouraging." Police Chief Guthrie has said he's noted a marked reduction of teenage speeding and an absence of vandalism since the youths, themselves, took positive steps to organize their club.

Baptists Into New Sanctuary Sunday

PAHOKEE — First Baptist Church members will hold services in their new $75,000 sanctuary Sunday for the first time. Rev. James Boyd, pastor, said this week.

Formal dedication services will be held in the fall. The new building, adjoining the education and administration sections of the church, is colonial in architecture, with matched furnishings and a new Baldwin organ. Seating capacity is 600.

Sunday's first service will be "Accent On Youth" as the theme. Buddy Simpson, a senior at Stetson University, will be on hand with a corps of college youth people to begin a six-week youth-led revival. Including the Sunday morning hour, the services will be held nightly through Friday. The public is invited to all services.

Little folks should be seen and not hurt!

WHAT ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY? Important changes were made in our Social Security laws by the recent Congress. Many people have written to ask about them. What are they? How do they affect you? Were they good or bad?

The last answer you will have to decide for yourself, but we can report on the more important changes and what they mean.

BROADER COVERAGE

Self-employed professional groups now eligible to participate include: lawyers, dentists, osteopaths, chiropractors, veterinarians, naturopaths, optometrists. This provision is effective for taxable years after 1955.

RETIREMENT AGE FOR WOMEN: Under the new provision, widows and surviving dependent mothers would be given full benefits at age 62 instead of the present age of 65. This is a flat lowering age limit without any strings attached. You now need to receive your benefits earlier.

Working women and wives would be given "reduced" benefits if they begin to draw them between age 62 and 65. This reduction works on a basic formula. For example, women who would receive only 80% of their full benefit if they retire at age 62, if they retire between the ages 62 and 65 they would be given 5/9ths of 1% for each month's delay up to age 65.

The formula for wives is a bit different. If they retire at age 62, they will receive only 75% of their full benefits. And if they retire between the ages of 62 and 65, they would be given 25/36ths of 1% for each month's delay in the retirement up to age 65.

But, there is one thing to remember. It's important. If a wife or working woman accepts a reduced benefit, this benefit would continue to be payable, and it would not be increased upon their reaching age 65. It figures like this: a working woman who retires at age 62 will start receiving her money sooner, but if she lives to be 67½ years old she stands to lose because she took her reduced retirement early rather than waiting for a full retirement.

So, be careful before you exercise this right — you might lose in the long run.

DISABLED BENEFITS

Under the new changes, payments will be made, beginning at age 50, to fully insured workers who are totally disabled for substantial gainful work of any kind.

(subbing for Schatzi)

If scientists ever get those food-pills I've read about perfectly I will be so happy for people.

We dogs, generally, are satisfied with a plate of scraps or a random bone, or happily, a solid dish of kibble a day.

But not people, who spend about half their time cooking, eating, or washing dishes instead of doing something useful such as digging holes in the yard, gnawing furniture, or scratching floors.

And when people who haven't been used to cooking get into the act, the whole process is even slower.

The other night, for instance, I curled cozily on my foot-stool, lazily blowing dust off my toenails, when two earth-shattering occurrences jolted me plumb to the floor.

First was when the TV set started rockin' and rollin' as Miss Ethel Merman opened the Republican convention. Wow! Wonder what she'd do if somebody asked her to sing a lullaby.

Next thing, Boss 2, who never cooks if there's somebody else about to do it (she always complains that since she learned to cook at age 8, she is now at retirement age for the stove), decided to invade the kitchen.

I don't know if it was a sudden frenzy brought on by the sound of the convention, or merely that she was roused to action by peering into the refrigerator.

First thing I knew, there was something boiling on the stove and then there was a pot into which Boss 2 kept poking sugar and some leaves and sticks of cinnamon and all kinds of odd objects.

Then she took the first pot off the stove and ran cold water into it and put the second pot on.

Pretty soon the joint was steaming (it was a hot night, anyhow) and there was a smell of spices in the steam.

This stuff went on for I bet an hour. Finally, she started putting things into a container, poured the hot stuff over that, put the pot in the sink, and tucked an old tattered recipe book into a cookbook which I supposed she'd been reading upside down.

I could just see some kind of real good spicy handout coming forth. Whining pitifully, I said that that smells good when will it be cool enough to eat?

Oh said the Boss I didn't know you liked pickled beets and eggs.

Pickled beets and eggs? I barked. Is that what all the fuss has been about? Beets? Eggs?

I just picked up and went off to bed.

But that's what I mean about people and food-pills. The sooner the better.

Brahmans At Kissimmee

KISSIMMEE — Dr. Edgardo Mondolfi of Caracas, Venezuela, will judge the cattle in the Second Annual Brahman Show Oct. 3, and more than 50 head of cattle and horses will be offered for sale on the following day, according to Gilbert Tucker, show and sale committee chairman for the Eastern Brahman Association.

Although the sale has been planned as an official activity of the Brahman breeders' group, breeders of "Brahman derivatives" such as Santa, Gertrudis, Brangus, and Charbray, and dairy breeders have been invited to participate.

The show, however, will be restricted to Brahman entries, who will compete for ribbons only, no prize money being paid. The official classification for the Brahman breed will be followed in the show, and Dr. Mondolfi will bring to the show a wide experience as judge of beef cattle at the major shows of the six regions of Venezuela.

Tasty Summer Treat

"It's truly a treat—first, to eat; and second, to prepare"—that's a fine description of this hearty rice salad. The base is made in minutes with packaged pre-cooked rice, which means little time in the kitchen. Bologna, carrots, peas and pimiento give it unique flavor, and for additional goodness it has a garnish of tomato aspic molds and ripe olives. Serve it with crispy bread sticks, a cooling beverage and a favorite dessert. This new entrée salad is a nourishing meal in itself, with plenty of "eye appeal"—yet one that's quick to make. It can happily supply the answer to a luncheon or dinner menu these hot, humid days.

BOLOGNA RICE SALAD
1 1/2 cups packaged pre-cooked rice
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 to 1 1/4 cups mayonnaise
2 teaspoons grated onion
1 to 1 1/2 cups cooked peas
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 pound bologna, cut in cubes
1 cup grated raw carrots
1/4 cup diced pimiento

Combine rice, water, and 1/2 teaspoon salt in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing rice gently once or twice with a fork. (Do not stir.) Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes. Then uncover and let cool to room temperature.

About 1 hour before serving, combine mayonnaise, onion, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt and the pepper, mixing well. Add remaining ingredients and the rice, mixing lightly with a fork. Chill. Serve on crisp lettuce with individual molds of tomato aspic. Makes 8 cups, or 8 to 10 servings.

*Cook 1 box quick-frozen green peas as directed on package. Cool and drain. Or use cooked fresh peas.

Miss Tillman Is Bride Of Buford Justice

The Missionary Baptist Church in Canal Point was the setting last Friday evening for the wedding of Miss Evangeline Tillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tillman, and Buford Justice, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Justice, sr., of Pahokee.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Geo. C. Clements, before banked palms and baskets of white gladioli. White satin ribbons marked the family pews. Ossie Upthegrove, tenor, was soloist and M. Martin, jr., pianist, played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white, length gown of white lace, with scooped neckline, empire waist and flared skirt. Her illusion veil was attached to a comb of white satin and she carried a white prayer book topped with white orchid and showered with white satin ribbon. She wore a necklace of tiny pearls which was the "something borrowed."

The matron of honor, Mrs. John J. Bush, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Donna Lee Upthegrove, wore identical waltz-length gowns of romance blue, with fitted bodices, full skirts. They carried old-fashioned nosegays and wore tiny headresses of blue satin.

The groom's best man, H. D. Fields, jr., of Norfolk, Va., and the ushers were Thomas Elliott, jr., and Jimmy Lee Hoy.

Mrs. E. A. Tillman, mother of the bride, wore a blue and white printed silk tulle dress and accessories. The mother of the groom chose a dress of beige with navy hat and white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Kay Mauldin presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Ray E. Ussery and Mrs. A. E. Goodson served the wedding cake.

After a wedding trip to Daytona Beach, the bride and groom are at home at Mrs. Ethel Johnson's apartment on Barfield Highway.

GLADES QUIZ:

"EGAD-LS BREVOSRE!"

- Q. Egad-Is Brevosre?
A. Yep . . . Egad, for short!
Q. Egad! What are you talking about this time?
A. Egad! . . . Talking about plenty!
Q. Egad . . . unscramble me quick.
A. "Egad-Is Brevosre" is simply an anagram concoction which comes out GLADES OBSERVER when you put the letters in proper sequence.
Q. Egad, you mean when you put first things first?
A. Exactly. And GLADES OBSERVER comes first for wise Glades businessmen, be they near-sighted or far-sighted.
Q. Egad, how do you mean?
A. The wise Glades businessman places advertising in GLADES OBSERVER and puts it in his budget as a profit-making sales tool instead of a cost item.
Q. Yeh? Why?
A. Because he knows GLADES OBSERVER is read throughout all Glades communities by the very people he must entice into his place of business.
Q. Egad, sounds good. Sure you're not pulling my leg?
A. Egad, no! Try us with your advertising and you'll see we're pulling store traffic for you.
Q. I know they read OBSERVER in Pahokee and Canal Point . . .
A. Egad, yes! Our paid circulation is nearly 100 percent among permanent white families — the very segment of population wise Glades businessmen must woo to keep 'em buying at home.

- Q. You say Pahokee and Canal Point . . . br' do they read GLADES OBSERVER in Belle Glade and South Bay?
A. Egad, and how! Chosen and Lake Harbor, too.
Q. Egad, how come all these people avidly want to read GLADES OBSERVER?
A. You figure it out . . . might be because people in all Glades communities can read OBSERVER and know all about what's going on in their respective city governments and what's with their friends and neighbors.

'Way back when we brought a Glades hospital situation to public attention. And, during the past several months readers have learned exclusively in OBSERVER about: Texas Cattleman Morgan Moves To Glades To Raise Cattle, Bill Pierce's Amazing Invention Of Ramie Processing Machine, Death Of Inmate At Prison Farm Without Medical Attention, to mention just a few "scoops."
Q. Egad, just what does this mean for advertisers?
A. Just that OBSERVER can deliver a heap of readers throughout the Glades to its advertisers, building store traffic and sales for 'em.
Q. With school about to start and people returning to Glades in droves, I'd better get my advertising started in OBSERVER.
A. Egad, yes . . . and NOW!

PAHOKEE'S BLUE DEVILS ARE 'SLOWER BUT HEAVIER' — FIRM

PAHOKEE — Will the '56 Pahokee Blue Devils football team fare better than last year's eleven which finished in the runner-up spot of the Suncoast Conference?

Head Coach Bev Pell hopes so, but in the true pessimistic tones utilized by football mentors everywhere, he won't go out on the limb to make any outlandish predictions.

Candidly, Pell says the Blue Devils will be heavier but slower than last year's edition. "We'll have the type of ball club nobody can run over at will, provided we are up," Pell says.

Returning stalwarts who were regulars last year form the nucleus of the '56 team. They include Ronnie Hitchcock, 211-lb. tackle, Harry Sheppard, 180-lb. center; Max Beverly, 185-lb. end; Richard Weiss, 175-lb. halfback; Cliff Stuart, 135-lb. halfback; and Weldon Cardin, 210-lb. fullback.

The Pell-mell boys will operate the Split-T on offense again and the search is on for the quarterback who can fill the key slot named last year by the graduate Buddy Parker. Chief contenders appear to be Earl Meredith, who saw some experience last year, and Clyde Alley, up from the "red dog" team.

Cliff Stuart, used on defense last year, is fighting for a half-back berth along with first-year man Kenneth Sullivan, and Lloyd Douglas, a 150-yr. transfer who saw action on the Frostproof team last year.

Much of the offensive spark is expected to come from Cardin, a bone-crushing behemoth who rates as one of the best in the Suncoast loop. He's a top punter, too, with a 45-yard average which compares well with many collegiate punters.

Thirty-five candidates have been reporting duty to Pell and Assistant Coach Bill Howard this week for conditioning chores. The lads can't don pads and uniforms until Sept. 1, which comes on a Saturday.

But Pell and Howard won't wait. They've called a special Sept. 1 practice session, and the word is out that the Blue Devils will have a go at scrimmage that very day.
